Welcome ... Pete & Virginia Blom

by Kaija Swisher

After selling their house in two days ("We put it on the market on Tuesday, and it sold on Thursday!" they said), Pete and Virginia Blom are happy to call Walnut Village home. This month, they will celebrate 53 years of marriage together. Both originally from Belvidere, South Dakota, they have most recently moved from Wall, South Dakota. Virginia worked as a Registered Nurse, and Pete worked for Golden West Telecommunications for 30 years before retiring. They were able to take a trip to Australia together in 1991 to visit Virginia's sister & Virginia went again in 2008. The Blom's have three sons, seven grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren, two of whom live right in Yankton. They are thankful for their family and said all three of their sons were instrumental in making their move to Walnut Village a smooth one. Besides enjoying time with friends and family, Virginia enjoys reading and Pete loves playing cards. Both look forward to meeting people in the Walnut Village community, as well as the services available. "Friday noon is the best!" said Pete. "Yes, the meal is prepared right here, and always good," added Virginia. And Walnut Village is happy to serve! Welcome, Pete and Virginia Blom!
