Remodeling has begun for a Residence Workshop in the 1910 “Power Plant” building just north of the main building. Pictured above is the “Before” picture of the room. It will be open during the Labor Day Picnic for all to see the workshop progression.

Chris is especially looking forward to the completion later this fall.

Thank You Note!

Walnut Village residents and staff would like to thank everyone who participated in our community bingo, to the United Church of Christ Group for their afternoon of dominoes and treats, to the United Methodist Church ladies group for their Hat fashion show, to Eunice Reis for an enjoyable evening of piano music, to everyone who participated in the River Boat parade & to Ella Kennedy & the Hornstra Family for displaying their quilts in our dining room. Your time and talents are greatly appreciated.

GOD BLESS YOU ALL!

Welcome

Walnut Village family would like to welcome our new residents and thank them for choosing Walnut Village as their new home.

Chris Adam nickname (Lucky) was born in Sioux City, Iowa at the Methodist Hospital. Chris has 5 siblings, one sister and four brothers. Chris moved to Yankton in July from Florida where he has been living for the past 3 years. Chris collects rocks for a hobby and cuts and polishes them. Chris has been a lapidary artist for 15 years. This required travel throughout the U.S. and several trips to Mexico. He has worked at various jobs over the years.

Leona Reckow was born at Academy, SD where she lived until she graduated from High School. She then moved to Yankton to attend college to obtain her teaching degree. Leona taught elementary and mentally handicapped children. Her teaching career took her to MN, SD, and CA.

Leona was married to Otto Reckow sharing 11 years together until his death. Leona raised 3 stepchildren. Her hobby was reading. Leona said she loved to read until her eyesight started failing, now she listens to audio books.
