It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas...

Gift Ideas for Christmas

When making out your Christmas list some gift ideas for the residents are: Lift Chair, Yankton Transit $20 Bus Pass, Gift Cert. for Hair Salon (see Gert), Massage (see Gert if there is enough interest we will arrange for Avera Massage Therapists' to come into Walnut Village so the residents don't have to leave for such a wonderful experience.). New bed spread, maybe with a holiday or seasonal theme? (NO comforters please), personnel items such as body wash, shampoo, lotion, night gowns, tooth paste, deodorant and after shave, etc.

Bridget Rupiper

Welcome...

Marcella Marek

Bridget Rupiper was born in Hartington, NE and made her home in the Yankton area. She married Gerry Rupiper on May 14, 1946 and was married for 64 years. They had three children: Dan Rupiper from Yankton; Jan Spielman from Cedar Rapids, Iowa; and Tom Rupiper from Hamilton, Montana; and has six grandchildren.

Bridget worked at the Paint Store and Drapery Shop. It was located where Boomers is now and she made drapes for many of Yankton's individuals. When the store closed, Bridget still took on making drapes in her own home and her husband, Gerry, painted many churches in the area. Bridget traveled with Gerry to Hawaii, Germany, Alaska, and many U.S. states.

Bridget's hobbies include playing cards, especially Sheephead, reading, collecting antiques and loves plants. She likes eating out with friends on Friday evenings. We're glad you have chosen Walnut Village as your home Bridget!!

Marcella Marek is from Tabor, South Dakota. She married Arthur Marek on September 24, 1958 and was married for 50 years. She has a daughter, Julie Kirchner, & two grandchildren. Marcella lived in Oregon then moved to South Dakota.

Marcella worked at K-Mart in the fabric and yarn department, and then transferred over to the shoe department. Marcella and her husband, Arthur, owned a motor home and traveled to the Oregon coast. After returning to South Dakota, they traveled the western and south western states.

Marcella's hobbies include reading and watching TV.

It's good to have you with us, Marcella!!
